2017-18 Concurrent Enrollment Student Participation Form

college credit. 2. Concurrent Enrollment (CE) courses are college courses. College course(s) require rigorous academic work. Course may include controversial cultural, religious, political, aesthetic and human sexuality issues. Students must have the r to engage with the material in an academically appropriate manner and the organization and time management skills to complete more work and meet deadlines. Students must also meet all college/university prerequisite requirements be enrolling in a CE course. 3. The CE program is open to high school juniors and seniors, sophomores may be admitted on a case-by-case basis. Students must be enrolled in a Utah public high school and be counted in the average daily membership. Students who have red diploma, whose class has graduated from high school, or who have participated in graduation exercises are not eligible participate in the CE program. Home-schooled students are eligible to participate in CE courses with local LEA permit completion of an application. Home-schooled students are subject to the same obligations as any other student in the Concurrent Enrollment Program. 4. Students may attempt up to 30 CE credits per year and may not repeat a CE course. 5. CE course registrations and grades are recorded on permanent college transcripts. 6. Withdrawing from or failing a CE course may impact a student's ability to receive financial aid in the future as well student's ability to enroll in additional CE courses. 7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a coacademic advisor to make ecourse choices that meet their ed)	Student Name (print)
college credit. 2. Concurrent Enrollment (CE) courses are college courses. College course(s) require rigorous academic work. Course may include controversial cultural, religious, political, aesthetic and human sexuality issues. Students must have the r to engage with the material in an academically appropriate manner and the organization and time management skills to complete more work and meet deadlines. Students must also meet all college/university prerequisite requirements be enrolling in a CE course. 3. The CE program is open to high school juniors and seniors, sophomores may be admitted on a case-by-case basis. Students must be enrolled in a Utah public high school and be counted in the average daily membership. Students who have red diploma, whose class has graduated from high school, or who have participated in graduation exercises are not eligible participate in the CE program. Home-schooled students are eligible to participate in CE courses with local LEA permit completion of an application. Home-schooled students are subject to the same obligations as any other student in the Concurrent Enrollment Program. 4. Students may attempt up to 30 CE credits per year and may not repeat a CE course. 5. CE course registrations and grades are recorded on permanent college transcripts. 6. Withdrawing from or failing a CE course may impact a student's ability to receive financial aid in the future as well student's ability to enroll in additional CE courses. 7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a coacademic advisor to make ecourse choices that meet their ed		Student Email Student	ent Phone enrolling in a CE course. 3. The CE program is open to high school juniors and seniors, sophomores may be admitted on a case-by-case basis. Stur must be enrolled in a Utah public high school and be counted in the average daily membership. Students who have ree diploma, whose class has graduated from high school, or who have participated in graduation exercises are not eligible participate in the CE program. Home-schooled students are eligible to participate in CE courses with local LEA permit completion of an application. Home-schooled students are subject to the same obligations as any other student in the Concurrent Enrollment Program. 4. Students may attempt up to 30 CE credits per year and may not repeat a CE course. 5. CE course registrations and grades are recorded on permanent college transcripts. 6. Withdrawing from or failing a CE course may impact a student's ability to receive financial aid in the future as well student's ability to enroll in additional CE courses. 7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a co academic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under ERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who i		Concurrent Enrollment (CE) courses are college courses. College course(s) require rigorous academic work. Course content may include controversial cultural, religious, political, aesthetic and human sexuality issues. Students must have the maturity to engage with the material in an academically appropriate manner and the organization and time management skills to
 4. Students may attempt up to 30 CE credits per year and may not repeat a CE course. 5. CE course registrations and grades are recorded on permanent college transcripts. 6. Withdrawing from or failing a CE course may impact a student's ability to receive financial aid in the future as well student's ability to enroll in additional CE courses. 7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a colleader academic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: Yes. No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. Student Signature Date Date Parent/Guardian Signature Date Parent/Guardian N	3.	enrolling in a CE course. The CE program is open to high school juniors and seniors, sophomores may be admitted on a case-by-case basis. Students must be enrolled in a Utah public high school and be counted in the average daily membership. Students who have received a diploma, whose class has graduated from high school, or who have participated in graduation exercises are not eligible to participate in the CE program. Home-schooled students are eligible to participate in CE courses with local LEA permission an completion of an application. Home-schooled students are subject to the same obligations as any other student in the
5. CE course registrations and grades are recorded on permanent college transcripts. 6. Withdrawing from or failing a CE course may impact a student's ability to receive financial aid in the future as well student's ability to enroll in additional CE courses. 7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a colleact academic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to a courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a d in the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. Student Signature Date Date I have read the above information and I give my permission for my student to participate in the concurrent enrollment program. Parent/Guardian Signature Date Print Parent/Guardian Name Date	4.
student's ability to enroll in additional CE courses. 7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a colleader academic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a d in the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? 1. CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. 1. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. 1. Student Signature	5.	CE course registrations and grades are recorded on permanent college transcripts.
7. SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a collacatemic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to a course a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a d in the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. Student Signature	6.
responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition. 8. If a student withdraws from a course at the high school, s/he must also withdraw from the course at the college. Failure to may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a collacation academic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to to courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a d in the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. Student Signature	7	SUBMISSION OF THIS FORM DOES NOT ENROLL THE STUDENT IN CE COURSE(S). The student is may result in a failing grade on the college transcript. 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a collacademic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to the courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: Yes. No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. Student Signature		responsible for completing the admission and enrollment process, paying applicable admission fees and tuition.
 9. CE credit earned shall be transferable from one USHE institution to another. Students should seek advice from a coacademic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be requir the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to the courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a did in the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature	8.
academic advisor to make course choices that meet their educational goals and transfer as equivalent credit. 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be required the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to a courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? 12. CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: Yes. No. 13. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree omplete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. 13. Student Signature
 10. CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to a courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature	9.
Conduct. 11. Students must contact the college or university CE administrator to request any accommodations that may be require the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to a courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature	10.	CE students must abide by the college/university Student Code of Conduct as well as the high school Student Code of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. 12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to to courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: Yes. No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature		Conduct.
12. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to a courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a din the most recent tax year for Federal tax purposes? CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: Yes. No. I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature Date
I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature Date	12.	. Under FERPA, an institution may disclose to parents information from the education records of a student who is "dependent" under the Federal tax laws without the student's consent. The education records shared are limited to the courses a student is enrolled in and tuition and/or fees owing for the courses. Have you claimed your student as a dependent complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program. Student Signature Date		CHECK THE BOX THAT APPLIES: [] Yes. [] No.
I have read the above information and I give my permission for my student to participate in the concurr enrollment program. Parent/Guardian Signature Date Print Parent/Guardian Name Email		I have read the above information disclosures and intend to participate in the Concurrent Enrollment program. I agree to complete all steps necessary to enroll in CE courses and abide by all rules associated with the CE program.
Parent/Guardian Signature Date Print Parent/Guardian Name Email		Student Signature	Date
Print Parent/Guardian Name Email		I have read the above information and I give my permission for my student to participate in the concurrent enrollment program.
Print Parent/Guardian Name Email	I	Parent/Guardian Signature	Date
	1
			List additional Parent/Guardians (name only)	