Provo High School Guest Dance Pass

At least one student in a couple must be a Provo High School student in order to attend Provo High School dances. Guests whose class graduated more than one year ago will not be allowed at a PHS Dance. Guests must follow the Rules of Conduct listed below.

The guest must complete the Guest Dance Pass form and submit it to the Provo High School administration at least two (2) days prior to the dance, with a copy of the guest's photo ID.

Rules of Conduct

Dress Standards Students should not wear revealing clothing. Undergarments should be covered by clothing. Clothing must not display inappropriate content, including drugs, violence, gang affiliation, etc. Dress must be appropriate to the dance (casual, semi-formal, formal).

Behavior Standards Inappropriate and unsafe dancing will not be allowed. This includes suggestive and/or crude dancing, or dancing that may endanger others. Weapons, alcohol, and illegal substances are not permitted at the dance or on school property.

Dance chaperones enforce Rules of Conduct and may ask students to leave the dance if rules are not followed. Parents and school administrators of guests will be contacted for serious violations of the Rules of Conduct, and further actions will be taken as necessary.
