Profile 2021 - 2022

SCHOOL & COMMUNITY

The flagship high school in the Provo City School District, Provo High offers a wide range of academic, vocational, technical, family science, and fine arts courses. From nationally ranked dance teams, the basketball team with most wins in the state, Provo High has long-standing tradition of diversity and excellence

Provo High School is located in Provo, which lies in a mountainous valley in central Utah. Provo is the state's third largest city of approximately 120,000 residents. With an average of 1900 students, PHS is part of the Provo City School District and is one of the three high schools in the district.

PHS shares reciprocal partnerships with Brigham Young University and Utah Valley University, which benefits all three institutions' academic programs. College concurrent enrollment credit is offered from UVU for numerous courses taught at PHS. A UVU Distance Learning Lab is located on campus in which many students take university courses right on the Provo High campus.

The student body of Provo High School is reflective of the community with approximately 47% ethnicity.

PHS has a block schedule with four 87-minute periods rotating every other day for a total of eight periods.
