

Provo High School Graduation Cords.

Students can earn cords in a variety of ways. The following is a list of the cords offered and how the student earns them.

Academic Honors Cords – These are based on a combination of the student’s grades and the rigor of the courses taken in high school

Gold – Summa Cum Laude: This is the highest ranked students

Silver – Magna Cum Laude: This is the second highest ranked students

White – Cum Laude: The 3rd highest ranked students

Program cords – These are based on program completion.

Hunter Green – Concurrent Enrollment

Double cords – student has completed 30 or more Concurrent Enrollment Credits while in high school

Single Cord – student has complete 15 to 20 Concurrent Enrollment credits while in high school

Navy Blue – Career Technology Education (CTE)

Double Cord – student has completed 2 or more CTE Pathways while in high school

Single Cord – Student has completed 1 CTE pathway while in high school

Seal of Biliteracy – Black/Gold/White Twist: Student have passed the Utah State test for Biliteracy, scores are verified by their high school counselor

Club Cords – Distribution of these cords are determined by the department or program sponsoring the cords/program.

FCCLA – Red/White Twist

TSA – Red/White/Blue Twist

DECA – Blue/White Twist

POP (People’s of Polynesia) – Green/Purple/Gold Twist

HOSA – Burgundy/Navy/White Twist

Latinos In Action – Red/Black Twist

Utah CTE Expo – Black and Gray Twist