- VIII. Principal Report
  - a. Attendance – The principal reviewed the new attendance policy with the community council. Students will not be allowed to participate in extra curricular activities with too many unexcused absences and tardies. Students can make up time during lunch and after school
  - b. Dress Code – Provo City School District created a district wide dress code policy last year. This dress code was shared with the council and is posted on the website

- c. New Website – The principal is working on launching a new, more user friendly website for the school and will work with community council on input
- d. Math Discussions – The principal discussed needs for more supports for students in math, this year they are piloting a math support class but are continuing to look at future supports for incoming freshman
- e. ML Supports – The principal discussed how the school was in TSI status and that increasing the achievement of ML students was a priority. This is why the current plan has money set aside for ESL aides. Discussion was had about student attendance for this group and possible barriers to attendance
